

Operational excellence and cost-efficiency is every shipper's goal and our team of contract logistics specialists strive to achieve both for you, every day.

We cover all principal industries and customize our offers to meet your needs:

- Production line handling,
- Transport and Distribution,
- Orders processing, managing inventory and more.

Warehousing

Take control of your stock levels with flexible storage solutions, consolidation, pick and pack, and cross-dock capabilities that help you adapt to market demands, our warehouse options include ambient spaces for your bonded and non-bonded goods.

Inventory Management

Find opportunities to cut costs, reduce errors, and know where your freight is, our dependable, robust technology gives you real-time visibility using electronic data interchange (EDI) connectivity.

Value Added Services

Tailor solutions to your specific business needs, expand the advantages of your contract logistics with additional services including light assembly, quality control, repackaging, labelling etc.

Distribution

Local distribution network delivering bulk, oversized or consumer goods, B2B, B2C items on time.

Think beyond warehousing

Contract logistics is your answer to operational excellence and cost-efficiency, Use this complete logistics solution to achieve effective end-to-end logistics management in Asia and beyond.

Take control by combining warehousing, inventory management, and value-added services into a custom-designed solution.

No matter your industry, contract logistics is a smart way to cut costs, minimize errors, and always know where your freight is.

